

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Service Interruptions at St. Clare's Mercy Hospital

October 29, 2019 - St. John's, NL: Eastern Health advises the public that due to clean-up underway associated with water damage on the first floor of St. Clare's Mercy Hospital, there will be some service interruptions tomorrow (Wednesday, October 30, 2019).

All surgical procedures scheduled for the operating room will be cancelled. Eastern Health is making every effort to contact impacted patients directly.

Inpatient care, ambulatory services and the emergency department of the facility have not been impacted.

It has been determined that the water damage occurred during maintenance to the sprinkler system. Clean-up has started and is expected to continue throughout the day on Wednesday.

Eastern Health apologizes for the inconvenience and concerns this may cause patients. Updates will be provided as they become available.
